Chapter 277 of the Acts of 1847, repealed so much of the Act of June 16, 1763-64, as excepted the estate of Silvanus Snow from the territory incorporated as Wellfleet.

The tide-water line from the mouth of Indian brook westerly, crossing Billingsgate island, was established by chapter 258 of the Acts of 1887.

YARMOUTH.

The settlement at what is now Yarmouth was at first known as Mattacheset. The name Yarmouth first appears in the Plymouth Colony Records under date of January 7, 1639. The bounds of Yarmouth were established by order of the Court June 17, 1641. It then included, besides the present town of Yarmouth, the territory of the town of Dennis. By chapter 6 of the Acts of 1793, the East precinct of Yarmouth was incorporated as the town of Dennis.

(DUKES COUNTY.)

CHILMARK.

Chilmark was first mentioned in the Massachusetts Records in a tax act under date of September 14, 1694, at which time it was common land. It was called also in early times the Mannour of Tisbury, being incorporated as the town of Chilmark October 30, 1714. The petition for incorporation included all the lands upon Martha's Vineyard lying to the westward of Tisbury, except Gay Head, and also included an island called No Man's Land. The act of incorporation included only the Mannour of Tisbury, and the other lands above described were annexed by a later act in 1716. The Elizabeth islands were set off and incorporated as the town of Gosnold in 1864.

EDGARTOWN.

Nantucket and Martha's Vineyard and the adjacent islands were included in the grant made March 12, 1664, by Charles II, to his brother James, Duke of York, thus becoming a part of the province of New York; and they so remained until, by the charter of William and Mary, dated October 7, 1691, they were, with the Colonies of Massachusetts and Plymouth and the province of Maine, united under one government, as the Province of the Massachusetts Bay in New England.

The easterly portion of the Vineyard, referred to in a grant by Gov. Lovelace, as recorded in the New York Book of Patents [Vol. 4, page 75] was called Great Harbor; its name was changed to Edgartown July 8, 1671, when the charters of Edgartown, Tisbury and Tisbury Manor [or Mannour] were granted by Gov. Francis Lovelace, and Thomas Mayhew was made Governor for life over the English and Indians on Martin's Vineyard.

GAY HEAD.

This section was early known as "the land of the Indians of Gay Head." It was incorporated as a district by chapter 204 of the Statutes of 1856; it was incorporated as a town by chapter 213, Acts of 1870.

GOSNOLD.

By chapter 97 of the Acts of 1864, the part of Chilmark, known as the Elizabeth islands, was incorporated as the town of Gosnold. The tide-water lines were defined by the Harbor and Land Commissioners, under chapter 196 of the Acts of 1881.

As the boundaries of Gosnold are in the water and there are no artificial monuments to mark them, it has been deemed unnecessary to print a plan of the town in this atlas.

OAK BLUFFS.

This territory was formerly a part of the town of Edgartown. It was set off as a town called Cottage City by chapter 18 of the Acts of 1880. The name of the town was changed to Oak Bluffs by chapter 27 of the Acts of 1907.

TISBURY.

The Indian name of this town was Chappaquonsett, and it subsequently bore the name of Middletowne. It was incorporated July 8, 1671, while under the government of New York, and was given the name of Tisbury-Towne. The westerly portion was set off and incorporated as the town of West Tisbury by chapter 216 of the Acts of 1892.

WEST TISBURY.

The westerly part of the town of Tisbury was incorporated as the town of West Tisbury by chapter 216 of the Acts of 1892.

(NANTUCKET COUNTY.)

NANTUCKET.

The town of Nantucket includes the whole island of Nantucket and the adjacent islands, its boundary being all in tide-water. It was incorporated as Sherborn (spelled Sharborn in New York Book of Patents) June 27, 1687, and its name was changed to Nantucket by chapter 4 of the Acts of 1795. The island of Tuckanock was annexed to Nantucket June 8, 1713, and the island of Muskeget and Gravelly islands were annexed by chapter 88 of the Acts of 1887. The tide-water lines were established by the Harbor and Land Commissioners, under chapter 196 of the Acts of 1881.

As the boundaries of Nantucket are in the water and there are no artificial monuments to mark them, it has been deemed unnecessary to print a plan of the town in this atlas.
