Hi Tim,

Yes, that would be the total gallon price for the epoxy product. Our manufacturing plants do not blend the Resins/Hardeners sides together, the end user will. Fast Floor products, typically they are sold in 5-gallon containers. However, for smaller quantities they will ship from our manufacturing plant in TX. If that is the price Jeff quoted you for the fast floor, then I believe that price is correct.

Hi Jeff,
Its my understanding the Fast Floor product must have training conducted. Is that correct?

Thank you for the information.

So the 1301AR & 3122 D together are $201.49 to get 1 gallon of each, or 2 gallons of mixed product.

I thought it was $50 a gallon.

The Fast Floor is $105 for a 1 gallon kit?

Sharon,

Please email Tim Carroll (cc'd here) with data sheets, and pricing in 1's and 5's of 1301AR resin and 3122D hardener. He'll also need data/msds, and an account set up form. He wants to get a quart sample of each, and pour a sample piling asap.

Thanks,
